one of the most beautiful villages in Italy. The Castle of Frontino, (perhaps dating back to 1100) was object of several battles, until it got to the domain of Montefeltro. Interesting is the Church of Saints Peter and Paul with an important painting by Federico Barocci, and the Civic Tower. Transfer to Macerata Feltria, a village with two souls, a medieval fortified high, and an eighteenth-century low, not surprisingly is one of the "Most beautiful villages in Italy". Worthy of note is the 18th century Palazzo Antimi Clari, the Parish Church of St. Michael the Archangel, the Church of Saint Francis, with a Gothic portal and frescoes from the fifteenth century and what remains of its ancient convent, currently home to the Museum of the "Radio d'epoca", the Palazzo del Podestà where the Civic Archaeological and Paleontological Museum is located. Return to the hotel, dinner and overnight.

Breakfast at the hotel, transfer to Sassocorvaro, a medieval village that offers wonderful views of Lake Mercatale. Visit of the Rocca Ubaldinesca, a "turtle of stones and bricks" designed by one of the greatest military architects of the Renaissance, Francesco di Giorgio Martini for the half-brother of Duke Ottaviano Ubaldini. Inside is housed the Museum of the Rocca Ubaldinesca, whose art collections include paintings, sculptures and furniture ranging from the fourteenth to the nineteenth century. End of services.
