Ingino, the Christmas Tree of Gubbio consists of over 300 light of various colors, able to achieve an absolutely special and unique color effect, connected by about 8,500 meters of electrical cables. For its gigantic size in 1991 entered in the Guinness Book of Records as the world's largest Christmas tree, in fact it has a base of 450 meters, for over 750 meters high, starting from the city medieval walls to the basilica of the patron saint Sant'Ubaldo at the top of the mountain covering, in total, an area of about 130 thousand square meters. Also in the historic center there is a traditional Christmas market, where stands and stalls offer typical food and wine products, decorations, gift ideas, etc... In addition, all the streets of the district San Martino, in the city center, become a crib, with the reconstruction of an ancient Gubbio inhabited by the figures of the nativity scene. Free lunch. End of the service.
